

With my office in my house I use satellite radio all the time for music, and news. I pay for this service and expect that satellite radio will continue to bring news, including traffic and weather.